Dear Friends:

Thank you very much for the generous donation of $500 on March 25, 2011 from Women in Defense. Your support through these difficult times is extremely important, and I am deeply appreciative.

Our temporary exhibit, "When Janey Comes Marching Home" closed September 5, 2010. The exhibit consisted of 40 plus portraits of military servicewomen who have served in Iraq and Afghanistan, accompanied by text describing the woman's experience during her tour of duty. This exhibit was brought to the Memorial in partnership with the U.S. Army Women's Foundation. It proved to be quite popular with visitors.

We have a DVD, Called to Serve, a chronology of women's service beginning with the American Revolution through women serving today in Iraq and Afghanistan. DVD copies of the film may be purchased for $12.

Special programs and an ever-increasing number of retirements, promotions and other ceremonies continue to keep our small staff exceptionally busy. We are continuing to promote programs such as; films on the history of women's roles in the military, educational outreach, oral histories, guest speakers and special exhibits.

Please accept our sincere gratitude for this generous gift. It is much needed. It is deeply appreciated.

*It's still hard for me to believe that there's a Women in Defense organization in any place other than here.
Thanks for supporting us!!*

Sincerely,

Wilma L. Vaught
Brigadier General, USAF, Ret.
President
